DISTRICT ATTORNEY’S RESPONSE TO PETITION FOR  RESENTENCING  REDESIGNATION

Having received notice of a petition dated _____, the District Attorney responds as follows:

- The District Attorney has no objection to this petition/application. Petitioner/applicant is entitled to the requested relief without a hearing.
- The District Attorney requests a hearing and objects to the granting of the petition/application because:
  - Petitioner/applicant was not convicted of an eligible offense.
  - Other: _____.
  - Petitioner is eligible for relief, but relief should be denied because petitioner presents an unreasonable risk of danger to public safety if he/she is resentenced.
- The District Attorney does not object to the petitioner’s/applicant’s eligibility for relief, but requests a hearing on the issue of resentencing.
