PERSONS DESIRING TO ADDRESS THE COMMISSION

CONTROL OF MEETING:

The Commission Chair shall first caution any individual at the meeting that their behavior is disrupting the meeting and that failure to cease the disruptive behavior could result in removal. After warning, the Chair will request the individual to leave if the individual does not stop their disruptive behavior. Additionally, the Chair reserves the right to recess the meeting until the person leaves or is escorted out and order is restored.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Matters on the agenda: The Commission shall allow public comment on items appearing on the agenda when the agenda item is considered by the Commission. Comments by the public must be relevant to the item on the agenda being considered by the Commission. At special meetings of the Airport Commission, public comment will only be allowed on matters appearing on the agenda.

Matters not on the agenda: At regular meetings of the Airport Commission, members of the public shall be allowed to address the Commission on matters not appearing on the agenda which are of interest to the public, and which are within the subject matter jurisdiction of the Commission. Pursuant to the Ralph M. Brown Act, the Commission shall not take any action or discuss any matter not appearing on the agenda although staff may be asked to briefly respond to or follow up on such items. At special meetings of the Airport Commission, public comment will only be allowed on matters appearing on the agenda.

ORDER AND DECORUM:

Individuals or organizations desiring to address the Commission shall:

- 1) Address the Commission from the designated location, virtual kiosk, including teleconferencing system(s). Speakers are encouraged but not required to give their name before addressing the Commission. This is to identify the speaker for the minutes.
- 2) Speakers shall direct their comments to the Commission, through the Chair, and not to the audience or staff.
- 3) Speakers may comment on specific matters before the Commission with reasons for the position taken.
- 4) The Chair may, at their discretion, increase the allotted time for any given speaker, but shall not be required to do so.
- 5) A speaker may not yield time to another speaker.
- 6) No individual may speak more than once during general public comment or on an item on the agenda unless recognized by the Chair as having new information.
- 7) In the interest of civil discourse, the rules as specified in this Order and Decorum of Commission Business and Robert's Rules of Order, to the extent such rules are not in conflict with the Brown Act, shall apply at all Commission meetings. It shall be the responsibility of the Chair to ensure that public comment is conducted in such a manner in order to avoid disruptive activity, promote mutual respect, keep comments focused on the subject being discussed, avoid personal attacks, prohibit hate speech and the threat of violence.
- 8) At the start of each meeting, the Chair shall remind the public of the rules and expectations of the public including distinguishing the process for: a) public comment for items not listed on the agenda; and b) public comment for items on the agenda.
